

Symbioun at Startup City 2010

Chennai, March 30, 2010:

Symbioun participated in the Startup City 2010 event conducted by SiliconIndia at Chennai on 20th March, 2010. This was the fourth edition of the Startup City event conducted annually by SiliconIndia. Startup City provides a platform for Startups, VC's and technology professionals to network and showcase their competencies.

At the event, Shanker Janakiraman, CTO –Symbioun Solutions participated in a panel discussion on 'Innovation & Monetizing Opportunities for Mobile Entrepreneur'. Other eminent speakers on the panel included TCM Sundram, Founder& MD- IDG Ventures India, Sateesh Andra, Venture Partner-DFJ India, Raj Oswal, BD-Shorthandmobile and, Ashish Jain-Bharti Airtel Innovation Fund.

Mr. Janakiraman, who shared the company's experience of launching a product in the US mobile ecosystem, said that "The event was an eye opener to the startup activity in Chennai and the interest VCs are showing towards Startups. Networking being a key component for building a business, the event afforded a great opportunity for industry interaction and visibility among VC's. For Symbioun which operates primarily in the US, the event bought to fore the emerging opportunities in India, especially in domains like mobile based solutions."
